Staying Ahead in Local Government

SOLGM ANNUAL CONFERENCE WELLINGTON TOWN HALL 26,27 & 28 AUGUST 2007

Join us and leap into the future with:

Richard Neville, a practicing futurist who will provide a range of possible scenarios and trends that will help us prepare for the future.

Jim Renwick, a member of the International Panel for Climate Change who will work through the tough issues of this subject.

We will address other major challenges which local government faces, including future proofing our infrastructure for a changing population, internationalising our cities and creating effective partnerships to deliver on community needs.

Other key speakers include

Rod Oram

Peter Biggs

Marcus Akahatu-Brown

Other guest speakers to be announced...

Social functions include a night at the Embassy Theatre and a conference dinner at the Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa. See what the future holds by visiting exhibitors in the 'Glimpse of the Future' Gallery.

We look forward to seeing you in Wellington
