

Conference programme

(Subject to change)

Thursday 26 November 2009

8:00	Registration Opens			Oceania
8:30	Welcome			Oceania
8:45	Opening Address - Hon Nathan Guy			Oceania
9:15	Alan Warner - Water Safety New Zealand			Oceania
10:00	The hazards associated with cold water immersion Prof Mike Tipton (Professor of Human & Applied Physiology, University of Portsmouth, UK)			Oceania
11:00	Morning Tea			Oceania
	Education	Policy/Strategy	Technical/Research
	Oceania	Rangimarie 1	Rangimarie 2
11:30	30 years of Australian swim education Gordon Mallet (CEO, AUSTSWIM)	An integrated approach to coastal public safety in New Zealand Brett Sullivan (Lifesaving Manager, Surf Life Saving New Zealand)	Supervision neglect - whose responsibility? Dr Ian Hassall (Institute of Public Policy)
12:00	Coastal injury Norman Farmer ESM (National Manager Coastal Safety Services, Surf Life Saving Australia)	Saving lives at sea Bruce Reid (CEO, Royal New Zealand Coastguard Federation)	The New Zealand river recreation use study Shayne Galloway, Ph.D (Lecturer, University of Otago)
12:30	Skills 2 Swim, reintroducing fundamental water safety skills Brent Ward (Skills 2 Swim Coordinator, Sport Otago)	The challenges of preventing child drowning deaths Dr Richard Franklin (National Manager Research & Health Promotion, Royal Life Saving Society Australia)	The integrated survival system Prof Mike Tipton (Professor of Human & Applied Physiology, University of Portsmouth, UK)
13:00	Lunch			Oceania
	Education	Policy/Strategy	Leadership
	Oceania	Rangimarie 1	Rangimarie 2
14:00	For divers, scallops are more dangerous than sharks Peter Crabb (Communications Manager, New Zealand Underwater)	The coordination of marine search and rescue incidents by RCCNZ and the NZ Police Nigel Clifford (General Manager, Safety Services Maritime New Zealand) & Bruce Johnston (Police National SAR Coordinator, NZ Police)	Partnerships and diversified Income Brendon Ward (CEO, New Zealand Recreation Association)
14:30	The language of water safety and effectiveness of delivery Dave DuBois (Head of Learning & Development, Carlife Swim School)	The New Zealand pleasure boat safety strategy - is it working? Catherine Taylor (Director, Maritime New Zealand)	Aquatic Strategies John Filsell (Christchurch City Council)
15:00	Drowning in rivers - what to do? Dr Richard Franklin (National Manager Research & Health Promotion, Royal Life Saving Society Australia)	Learning to swim and survive - who's taking responsibility? Jamie Delich (Manager, Recreation and Sport Facility Development, Wellington City Council)	Working together Duncan Ferner (Secretariat Manager, New Zealand Search and Rescue)
15:30	Afternoon Tea			Oceania
16:00	Organisational review - Geoff Barry (CEO, Surf Life Saving New Zealand)			Oceania
17:00	Katie Sadleir, (General Manager, Injury Prevention, ACC)			Oceania
19:00	Conference Dinner			Icon, Level 2

Friday 27 November 2009

8:30	Registration Opens			Oceania
9:00	Deep diving by 'Technical' recreational divers: challenges, achievements and risks Dr Simon Mitchell (Medical Advisor, New Zealand Underwater/Consultant Anaesthetist and Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, University of Auckland)			Oceania
10:00	The framework and strategic plan for Singapore Dr Teo Ho Pin (Chair of Singapore National Water Safety Council, Mayor and MP)			Oceania
10:30	Morning Tea			Oceania
11:00	The New Zealand Water Safety Framework Darryl Parrant			Oceania
11:30	Workshop			Oceania
12:45	Lunch			Oceania
	Ethnicity	Partnerships	General Interest
	Oceania	Rangimarie 1	Rangimarie 2
13:45	Maori water safety – A community development model Matene Love (Water Safety New Zealand)	Regional water safety - the community approach Pip Savage, Roger Scott and John Thomas (Water Safety New Zealand)	Collaborative approach to drowning data capture methods and its usage Alexander Brunt (Water Safety New Zealand) Nicola Smith (Water Safety New Zealand)
14:15		Boating safety partnerships with regional councils Sue Tucker (Environment Waikato)	Water safety efforts for public aquatic facilities Eddie Foo (Manager, Sports Safety Division, Singapore Sports Council)
14:45	Afternoon Tea			Oceania
15:15	Workshop feedback Darryl Parrant			Oceania
15:45	Preventing drowning in developing countries - lessons for us all! Justin Scarr (Chief Operations Officer, Royal Life Saving Society, Australia)			Oceania
16:45	Closing address			Oceania
17:00	Finish			